For En Papillote:

1 lb	Red Potatoes	455 g
6 cups	Greens (kale, spinach, or chard), chopped	400 g
6 (4 oz) portions	White Fish (such as drum, halibut, or snapper), skin off	680 g
1/4 tsp	Kosher Salt	1.5 g
To Taste	Black Pepper, ground	To Taste
6 Tbsp	White Wine, dry	60 g

Preparation:

For Compound Butter:

1. Gather all ingredients and equipment.
2. Combine all ingredients in a bowl or food processor and pulse or stir to combine.
3. If butter is too cold, partially melt it in a pan or microwave.
4. Save for use en papillote.

For the White Fish:

1. Gather all ingredients and equipment and preheat the oven to 350°F (180°C).
2. Cut potatoes into half inch rounds. To blanch potatoes, place in a medium sized pot of water and bring to a boil. Remove from heat and strain when potatoes are cooked halfway through (5-8 minutes). To shock, place potatoes in an ice bath to halt the cooking process.
3. Season the fish with the salt and pepper. Set aside in the refrigerator.
4. To assemble the pouches, divide the potatoes between 6 large, square pieces of parchment paper.
5. Top the potatoes with 1 cup of greens and one 4-ounce filet of fish.
6. Sprinkle each pouch with 1 tablespoon of wine.
7. Place 1 1/2 teaspoons of compound butter on top of each fish filet.
8. Fold the parchment paper around the edges tightly in 1/4 inch folds to create a half moon shape. Make sure that all edges are tightly sealed to avoid steam escaping.
9. Arrange the packaged fish on a sheet tray and place in the oven. Cook until the fish is fully cooked through (white and flaky), about 12-15 minutes.
10. Remove the sheet pan once finished and serve by carefully opening each parchment package and transferring contents to a plate.
